

Eligibility for Retiree Benefits

Retirees Initial Hire Date Determines Eligibility for Benefits

NOTE: Your hire date is considered the date which you began working for a PEBP participating employer. Many employers may participate in PERS, but do not participate in PEBP.

Retiree Coverage for Employees Initially Hired On or After January 1, 2010	Employees working for a PEBP-participating agency with an initial hire date on or after January 1, 2010, but prior to January 1, 2012, and who subsequently retire with less than 15 years of service credit are eligible to elect retiree coverage, however, these employees will not qualify for a premium subsidy (must pay unsubsidized rate) or Exchange HRA contribution unless the retirement occurs under a long-term disability plan.
Retiree Coverage for Employees Initially Hired On or After January 1, 2012	Retired employees with an initial hire date on or after January 1, 2012, may participate in the program at retirement but will not qualify for a premium subsidy or an Exchange HRA contribution upon retirement and must pay the full unsubsidized rate.
Retiree Coverage for Employees Initially Hired Before January 1, 2012	State and non-State participating employees who meet the following requirements qualify for a Years of Service premium subsidy or Exchange Health Reimbursement Arrangement (HRA) contribution at initial retirement or re-retirement if the employee: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.
